Graphic communication is emerging as an essential element of worship services. Anne Willis and Dave Teich have created a team of members who conceptualize, design, and execute works of visual, graphic and decorative art that enhance the quality of worship, communication and even healing within the church, by direct involvement in creating the worship environment. It serves a need for more inclusive, engaging, and contemporary worship activity, and appeals to a broader and younger demographic of members.

Our four One Act plays will explore life in the US through the eyes of outsiders and immigrants. What does America mean, when it means so many different things to different people, especially to "outsiders" who are struggling to become a part of it? The Apron by Meg Griffith, A Mule in JFK by Keith Glover, Dead Bolivians on a Raft by Guillermo Reyes, and Lord Byron's Love Letter by Tennessee Williams are our plays, and they range stylistically from the realistic to the farcical to the absurd.

Readers are Ron Kostar, Robert Axel, Claudia Luongo and Maureen Parrot.

Donations can be made to Roosevelt Arts Project, P.O. Box 5, Roosevelt, NJ 08555
