

Saving Schlinski

An open sale from the artist's estate

The Ed Schlinski Collection is homeless. Only your action can save this trove of artworks and preserve the legacy of this Roosevelt artist.

Papier maché sculptures, paintings, and a great many works on paper will be on display at:

The Fence Line Gallery
10 N. Valley Rd,
Roosevelt, NJ

Saturday, August 27, 2022
10:00–4:00 PM

ALL works of art need a good home!

Roosevelt Arts Project (RAP) has organized this rescue and conducted an inventory of its contents. Now the collection is for sale.

Minimum donations: $5 per print,
$10 per painting, $20 per sculpture.

Visit rooseveltartsproject.org/ed-schlinski for more information about this underappreciated Modernist artist and the sale of his collection.

All proceeds benefit RAP.

