Film Series: Trumbo

Saturday, December 10, 2016, 8:00 PM
Borough Hall
33 North Rochdale Avenue
Roosevelt, NJ 08555

"Are you now, or have you ever been, a member of the Communist Party?" These words were widely feared during the late 1940's to the late 1950's as Roosevelt artists and their friends found themselves under the scrutiny of the federal government's purge on supposed communist sympathizers during the McCarthy era. We kickoff a series of films and documentaries related to the history of Roosevelt with our presentation of the 2015 film, Trumbo. Breaking Bad actor Brian Cranston stars as the rebellious, freewheeling, and heroic Hollywood screenwriter Dalton Trumbo, as he leads the fight against censorship in the film industry.

Leipzig: A Musical Biography

Saturday, March 11, 2017, 8:00 PM
Borough Hall
33 North Rochdale Avenue
Roosevelt, NJ 08555

What do Bach, Telemann, Mendelssohn, Schumann, Wagner and a host of other less renowned composers have in common? They were all either born, or lived and made music in Leipzig, an unpretentious, mid-sized city in eastern Germany. Through the keyboard music of composers from the 17th through the 20th century and his illuminating commentary, Alan Mallach will tell the story of this remarkable city and its musical figures, from Johann Kuhnau who depicted Bible stories in keyboard sonatas, to the Jewish composers who followed Mendelssohn there in the 19th century. And last but not least, Hanns Eisler, who was deported from the United States in 1948 and wrote everything from Hollywood film music to Communist marching songs.

There is a suggested donation of $5 per person.
