The Russian Piano
Saturday, November 12
8:00 p.m.
at Borough Hall
Russian music has a unique soul, hard to define but recognizably there, and generations of Russian composers have used the piano as the medium for some of their deepest thoughts and ideas. In this (mostly) solo piano program, Alan Mallach will explore the riches of the Russian piano starting with music by Tchaikovsky and ending with selections from Dimitri Shostakovich’s Twenty Four Preludes and Fugues, and including music by Nicolai Medtner and a rarely-heard 'Melodrama' from the pen of Anton Arensky.

Roosevelt’s Got Talent!
Saturday, January 21
8 p.m.
at Borough Hall
Come join us for a night of storytellers, singers, musicians, and other as yet unknown talents. Call 918-0757 to be added to our roster of acts or be spontaneous & sign up the night of the show (if time allows). Open Mic Night is sure to be fun for all ages. Better than those "idol" shows, because it’s live & there are no judges.

Music-Pancake Breakfast
Sunday, February 12
10:00 a.m.
at Borough Hall
Come help support the Roosevelt Arts Project and enjoy a morning of delectable Roosevelt pancakes, accompanied by delightful ambient electronic/computer music supplied by Roosevelt resident Brad Garten and friends from Columbia & Princeton Universities. This event is intended as a fund raiser for the upcoming 25th Anniversary Celebration. There is no better way to start a Sunday morning in February!

2012: The Year of the Fatted Calf or How I Stopped Worrying & Learned to Love the Norm
Yet Another Celebration of Ordinary Consciousness & the Ordinary World!
Saturday, March 24
8:00 p.m.

Featuring works by the usual suspects: Czyzewski, Herrstrom, Kostar, McNally & possibly other voices not yet heard or known, since we’re at the edge of something both Mayan & not.

An Evening with Ron Orlando
Saturday, April 21
8:00 p.m.
at Borough Hall
An evening of acoustic music with Ron Orlando, former Roosevelt resident, who has been a musical institution in the area for over 40 years. Ron’s singing and songwriting talents stir large portions of Memphis-style R&B with an eclectic blend of folk, blues, and an additional rocking. His original music, at times topical and controversial, has been performed in a major motion picture and banned from a Texas radio station. Ron’s live performances always pack a fresh sense of enthusiasm.

The Roosevelt String Band
Friday and Saturday, May 4 & 5
8 p.m.
at Borough Hall
The String Band (as its known in Roosevelt) returns for its annual concert featuring mostly contemporary songster/ singer-songwriter hits, traditions of folk, blues and other genres. Band members include buddy David Bickler on vocals and guitar, Paul Prestopino on a variety of string instruments (and at least one vocal), Ed Cedar on bass and guitar, Sam Cedar on vocals, and Jess Pettis and Sarah Hunt (Kai Altai) promise to show up as well. This year’s program promises to feature (as usual) songs with deep metaphysical insights, social and political commentary, gut-wrenching humor and plain fun.

"Talking Heads"
Sunday, June 24
1–5 p.m.
at Assifa Space
40 Tamara Drive
A show of portraits by Roosevelt Artists and special guest artists with live music on the patio. Come enjoy the day for a potluck picnic, art, music, and good company!
The Roosevelt Arts Project is a multi-media arts organization dedicated to annually presenting a wide range of cultural events to Roosevelt and the greater area. Our mission includes giving back to the community and promoting the arts among all residents, such as our sponsoring the mosaic that now adorns the facade of Roosevelt’s Borough Hall and presenting an annual arts award to RPS’s graduating sixth grade class. Please consider making a tax deductible contribution to support us in these efforts, which can be mailed to RAP, PO Box 5, Roosevelt, NJ 08555.

Thank you.
